GAC Capital is jointly financed by Chinese listed jewelry companies and the Gems & Jewelry Trade Association of China (GAC).

Established in 1991, GAC is the most authoritative and governmental organization among Chinese jewelry industry, and has established close relationships with associations and organizations from more than 80 countries in all aspects including gems and jewelry education, training and exhibitions.

GAC annually hosts 3 international jewelry fairs in Beijing, Shanghai, and Shenzhen, for the domestic and international jewelers to showcase their latest products and to meet potential distributors and buyers from domestic and international.

It also publishes the GAC Newsletter and magazines including the China Gems and BAZAAR Jewelry to provide references for members and jewelry lovers.

DEEP COLLABORATION WITH THE INDUSTRY AND THE LOCAL GOVERNMENT

In April 2017, the Galaxy Holding Group first proposed the concept of building a "China Fashion Jewelry Town" in Nansha District, Guangzhou, and was highly supported by the Nansha District and Dongchong Town governments.

GAC Capital and the Galaxy Holding Group collaborate in-depth as strategic partners, and have launched a series of projects around the jewelry town. GAC Capital is responsible for the industry planning and resources integration. In the future, the town will develop as an industrial linkage with the surrounding jewelry fashion industry clusters, create new engines for the fashion industry, and promote the upgrading of China jewelry industry.

GAC Capital organizes design competitions to inspire local Chinese designers and facilitate companies' recognition of outstanding designers.
